"I can't thank you enough for this painting process. It has changed everything. This way of painting is endlessly fascinating, even the difficult parts such as not knowing where to go next. It's letting go of the known and venturing into unfamiliar territory."

Claudia Michelli, Ashland 2007

*I*n this workshop, everyone is a beginner; people from all levels of experience are welcome, including those who have never picked up a paintbrush. The goal is free expression, with the emphasis on the process rather than on technique or expertise. This workshop appeals to people who are interested in the dimensions of artistic/creative, healing/therapeutic, meditative/spiritual and authentic social change. You will be given the environment, methods, facilitation, and overview with which to embark on the greatest of all human journeys—embracing your own path and confidently following it.
