

The Painting Experience

with Stewart Cubley

Wilmington, NC

February 8-10, 2008

Discover an extraordinary resource:
the vibrant, driving force
of your own creative spirit.

In this workshop, everyone is welcome—
even if you have never picked up a paintbrush.
The goal is free expression, with the emphasis on the creative process rather than technique.

Stewart Cubley is the founder of the Institute for Art & Living in San Francisco and author of Life, Paint and Passion.
For over 30 years he has skillfully and gently facilitated the the unfolding of the creative process through The Painting Experience.

*"I can't thank you enough for this painting process.
It has changed everything. This way of painting is endlessly fascinating, even the difficult parts such as not knowing where to go next. It's letting go of the known and venturing into unfamiliar territory."*

Claudia Michelli, Ashland 2007
